

Professional Fees and Sliding Scale Fees

My fee for the initial session is $100. My regular fee for a 50-minute psychotherapy session or consultation is $90. Other services such as external report preparation, phone conversations lasting longer than 15-minutes, attendance at other meetings at your request, and time spent in any other service required of me on your behalf and at your request will be charged my regular fee of $90 per hour, prorated as needed. If you become involved in legal proceedings requiring my participation, you will be expected to pay my regular hourly fee whether I am called to testify by you or another party.

I have a limited amount of slots available for a sliding scale fee, in the case of unusual financial hardship. These limited availability rates are listed below. Please feel free to contact me regarding availability.
